2016 Forefronts Recipients

Forefronts is an annual award program that honors those leading the way in Lake County. Forefronts is a section of the journal focused on introducing outstanding community members who make Lake County a great place to live and work.

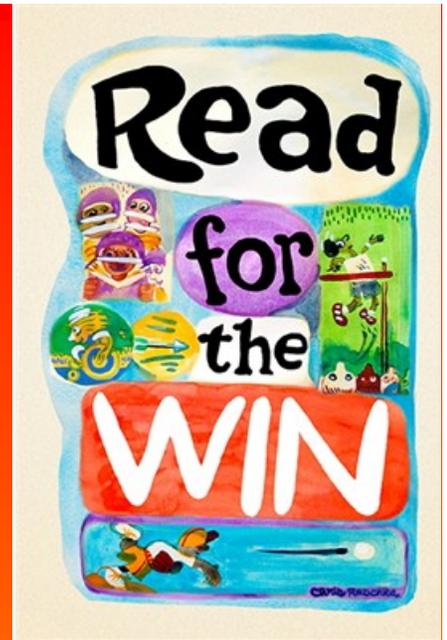

Our very own Head of Youth Services, Debbie Allen was recently selected as one of this year's Lake County Journal Forefronts Award recipients. She was nominated for her efforts with the Round Lake Area Library's youth programs, specifically bringing Holly Collie in to encourage children to feel comfortable learning and exploring new things. Congratulations Debbie & Holly!

Friends of the Library

Volunteers from a broad range of backgrounds brought the Friends of the Round Lake Area Public Library into existence and were formally organized in September 1990. This all-volunteer group sponsors events for raising funds, such as the Holiday Open House and also provides financial support for the library. We need your help..... please join Friends today!

Friends Membership:

Minimum donation of $5 an individual.
 Send payment to Library address or stop by the Library.
